Citizen Reporting Form

When reporting information please be as specific as possible and provide as much detail as possible. The more information you provide the better, as it helps determine how we respond to the report. Any relevant information or knowledge you acquire after making your report should be reported in a follow up submission.

You do not have to identify yourself when submitting a report. However, you are encouraged to identify yourself so that we may follow-up on your complaint via email or telephone and obtain additional information that may be helpful in our review of the matter.

Who is the subject of your complaint?

Which department, division, agency or location is involved?

Is there a vendor or contractor involved, if so who?

Details of the violation you wish to report:

Have you reported the alleged violation to any other authority?
